THE TORCHMEN QUARTET

The Torchmen Quartet is a dynamic and heartfelt vocal group dedicated to sharing rich harmony and meaningful music since 1969. Blending traditional quartet sound with warmth and personality, the group brings both excellence and authenticity to every performance, and seek to honour God in all they do.

SUSAN RYMAN

Raised in Riverview, New Brunswick, Susan has performed across Ontario, in the Maritime Provinces, the Yukon, as well as Carnegie Hall, New York, Germany and Scotland. Susan is thankful for every invitation to share the music that awakens memories and inspires the heart.

REFLECTIONS TRIO

Reflections Trio is based on a scripture reference from 2 Corinthians 3:18 and seeks to "...reflect the Lord's glory..." through the music they are privileged to share. The men's trio is made up of singers Ralph Sider, Ron Evans, and Brian Evans with pianist Ruth Baker.
